Appropriate fees must accompany the test application and be received 21 days prior to the test date requested. A $15.00 late fee will be charged if late and it is the Test Chairs discretion whether the application will be accepted late. Test applications received without fees and without the required signatures will be returned to the applicant. There is a $25.00 fee for any returned checks and fee must be paid before the test date. The test candidate is responsible for obtaining permission from his/her home club for testing, if said club is not LJFSC. If the test candidate cancels for ANY reason after the application deadline, THE TEST FEES WILL BE FORFEITED. The test candidate must submit a new test application and test fees to reschedule the test. Requested dates may not be available due to the number of test requests or judge availability. Tests will be rescheduled for the next available session. If the Test Chair reschedules the test, no additional fees will be required.
